

I am outraged to believe that that Sinclair Broadcasting's stoops so low that they will wrongly defame any political candidate by trying to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election.

It is my understanding that they are obligated by law to serve the public interest. but when companies control the airwaves and deny the common good for baser motives we are no longer a real democracy. Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
